Profile

Odile is an experienced Case Manager and Occupational Therapist specialising in complex neurological rehabilitation, delivering person-centred, goal-focused support, coordinating multidisciplinary teams and care packages to maximise independence, participation, wellbeing, and long-term outcomes.

Known for her client centred approach Odile is an experienced Case Manager and Occupational Therapist with over 30 years of post-qualification experience, specialising in complex rehabilitation, neurological conditions, traumatic injury, and community-based practice. Qualified with a BSc (Hons) in Occupational Therapy from Leicester University in 1995, she is registered with both IRCM and HCPC. She is also a member of BABICM, the Royal College of Occupational Therapists, and the British Association of Occupational Therapists.

Odile provides person-centred, goal-focused rehabilitation for adults, children, young people, and families affected by acquired brain injury, spinal injury, orthopaedic trauma, amputations, chronic pain, mental health difficulties, and complex physical disabilities. She has extensive experience working with clients both pre- and post-settlement, coordinating multidisciplinary teams, care packages, vocational rehabilitation, housing, equipment provision, and long-term rehabilitation programmes.

Recognised for her practical approach, strong clinical reasoning, and ability to engage with her clients. Odile is committed to maximising independence, participation, wellbeing, and long-term outcomes through sourcing and collaborating with rehabilitation therapists. Alongside her clinical work, she is the Director of DOTS Training and Consultancy Ltd, which delivers specialist training and consultancy across health, social care, and housing, providing disability access services to businesses.

Testimonial

"Odile Waddington-Jones is a very kind, caring and calm personality with a sensitive personal touch. Extremely informative and knowledgeable and has helped with my disabled sister to help make life easier and to help us understand her needs whilst being professional throughout. Would highly recommend." - Family Member of Client
