Profile

Jenna is a motivated and active individual with a positive attitude. She is dedicated to helping others and strives to achieve the best outcomes for her clients to ensure they reach their ambitions.

Jenna is an accomplished adult and paediatric Occupational Therapist and an experienced Case Manager. She has vast experience in supporting clients with a broad range of conditions including complex orthopaedic and polytrauma (including burns), brain injury and mental health needs.

As a Case Manager, Jenna plans and manages cohesive rehabilitation and care packages to help clients make the most of their life following injury or illness. Jenna is dedicated to facilitating clients to lead independent and satisfying lives. She quickly builds rapport and ensures all involved are engaged with the rehabilitation and goal planning process. She offers clinical excellence, advanced problem solving and a compassionate approach.

Testimonial

"Jenna is kind, compassionate, and empathetic. She is a real team player and is always willing to support others in any way she can. She makes others feel at ease and works hard to achieve her aims, being proactive and resourceful in the process. She is a real pleasure to work with." Louise Creelman Independent Case Manager
