Profile

Emily is proactive and organised; she is a positive and creative thinker who takes a highly flexible approach with her clients to achieve the outcomes they value. She is a strong advocate for her clients and their families, and highly experienced in drawing together effective care and rehabilitation teams to deliver best outcomes and maximise their potential.

Emily has worked as a case manager since 2009; cases have included acquired brain injury, complex orthopaedic/polytrauma injuries, spinal injuries, and birth injuries. Working as an occupational therapist in the NHS, charitable and private sectors, Emily developed highly specialist clinical skills in brain injury rehabilitation.

Having worked as a care expert, Emily has a good understanding of the litigation process and receives instruction from both solicitors and insurers.

Located in Cornwall, with another base in Surrey, Emily is happy to travel as is reasonable and practicable for the client or case.

Testimonial

"I feel so fortunate to have had Emily as my case manager. I appreciate her relaxed, friendly approach, while at the same time she is highly efficient and always alert to the client's needs. Her kind and empathic nature mean that I always feel in very safe hands. She has been a wonderful source of support in many different ways."

Client

"Emily is an excellent case manager with exceptional clinical skills. Emily has a clear understanding of the litigation process and the interplay between the roles of the MDT and the expert witnesses. Emily thinks outside the box, designing creative solutions for clients and the implementation and delivery of their therapeutic interventions. Emily is an excellent communicator and works very collaboratively with other members of the MDT. In her day-to-day case management work she demonstrates excellent judgement in difficult situations and is gifted with the perfect combination of empathy, clarity and integrity. Her clients are in extremely capable hands."
