Profile

Pip is a highly motivated and caring rehabilitation case manager with 12 years clinical experience of supporting both adults and children with complex trauma, including brain, spinal and orthopaedic conditions.

Pip has a background as an experienced physiotherapist which informs her role to ensure a knowledgeable and structured approach to the clients rehabilitation journey.

Pip is skilled in navigating and communicating with the NHS and Social Care sectors having built her clinical experience working within statutory services.

Pip understands the importance of robust and concise reporting with clear evidence of client need and the provision of well thought through and effective solutions.

Pip is diligent, approachable and hard working. She is alive to the detail and dynamics of the client and family situation when going through life changing trauma and adopts a well informed and sensitive approach. She is highly experienced in recruiting, guiding and supporting care and multidisciplinary teams to ensure the clients goals are understood and met in order to maximise their rehabilitation potential and quality of life.

Testimonial

"Thank you for supporting my Dad to get home quickly after his accident. He had a fantastic team of support around him to get him back on his feet again, which you organised."

Daughter of a client.

"Pip is a super approachable team member, who always finds the time to support others. No problem is ever too big. She will find a way to help resolve it, in a calm and timely manner."
