Profile

Liz is an experienced Case Manager specialising in rehabilitation, with a strong background in inter and multidisciplinary models of working given her background in Speech and Language Therapy. Liz is dedicated to improving quality for individuals following life-changing injuries and is holistic and methodical in her approach.

After qualifying as a Speech and Language Therapist in 2007, Liz gained a diverse range of experience, predominantly with adults with both acquired and progressive neurological conditions. Liz has a broad range of clinical expertise, within acute hospitals, dedicated rehabilitation environments, and community settings.

Following a move to Case Management in 2021, Liz has not only continued to specialise in neurorehabilitation, but she has also further diversified and gained experience in managing both pre-settlement and settled cases within brain injury, orthopaedics, complex trauma, learning disabilities and medical negligence. Liz works with both adults and young adults.

Liz provides clear communication and strong leadership to rehabilitation teams, and an empathetic approach to every individual she works with.

Liz is experienced in direct recruitment and the oversight of support packages, as well as working with agencies to ensure safe and effective provision.

Testimonial

"Liz is an effective and skilled case manager, who brings care and attention to detail in all of her client work. Liz never loses sight of what is in the client's best interest and works diligently to secure the best outcomes."
